Media Release

Immerse yourself in Sydney Harbour Week 2007

You're invited to celebrate the beauty and diversity of our city's beautiful harbour from Friday 2 to Sunday 11 March 2007 during Sydney Harbour Week!

Swim, snorkel, sail, dive and explore the world's most stunning harbour.

Sydney Harbour Week, coordinated by Sydney Harbour Foreshore Authority, includes more than 40 events that take place on and around the harbour over 10 days, and many of them are FREE!

There's plenty to see including the annual Sail Expo, the Wooden Boat Raft-up, the Audi Sydney Harbour Regatta and the Classic Ferry and Workboat Challenge.

Treat the kids to a free Sydney harbour cruise or a day trip on the stunning Tall Ship James Craig. A great time can be had at the Active Fun Day at Leichhardt plus the chance to explore a Warrior Trail and enjoy a bush tucker picnic.

Discover Chowder Bay – considered one of the world's richest marine environments, or choose from a series of guided tours and encounter the beauty and rich history of Sydney Harbour and some of its islands.

Whether you're a beginner or an expert diver explore the harbour's top dive spots including Old Man's Hat, Manly Cove and Flagstaff.

Take a tour of North Head Fort or challenge yourself in the Harbour Swim Classic, the Bridge-to-Bridge swim or the North Sydney sailing cup.

Don't forget to join in the celebrations for the 75th Anniversary of the opening of Sydney Harbour Bridge on Sunday 18 March.

Sydney Harbour Week is all about celebrating and sharing in our magnificent harbour foreshores and waterways ... they're your's to explore, so get out there and enjoy!
